

Martin Luther King

I have a dream...

Location

Main Events

Main events

1929	Martin was born in North America
1955	Martin helped organise the Montgomery Bus Boycott
1963	Martin gave his famous "I have a dream" speech to 250000 people in Washington DC.
1964	Martin won the Nobel Peace Prize
1968	Martin was assassinated

Society

In the 1950's people were treated differently because of their race. King organised many protests to fight for civil rights and end racial segregation.

Knowledge Organiser

Key information and vocabulary.

inequality	Unfairness
influential	Makes people take notice inspiring	Fill someone with the ability to do something discrimination	Unfair treatment of different types of people race	A group of people with a shared culture or features.
assassinated	Murdered for religious or political reasons boycott	To refuse to buy, use or go to in order to make a change
Nobel Peace Prize	Awarded for the promotion of peace slavery	Being controlled by another person with little or no pay.
civil rights	Every person should not suffer discrimination

King was a Christian minister and believed everyone was equal and should be treated the same. He believed in non-violent protests.

Beliefs