

Job description for Learning Council members.

As part of my role I need to be:

1. A good role model by respecting our school rules and being like DRAGON by following our school learning code.
2. Reliable and committed. This means that I always check the learning council board so I know when to attend meetings.
3. A good team player so I am prepared to share my ideas and be willing to develop my skill set and build on my confidence.
4. A good listener and speaker so I can voice the opinions that my class mates have shared with me in the class learning forums and in the class suggestion boxes.

Learning Council Member toolkit.

- Most recent class learning forum minutes.
- Class suggestion box
- Learning council jotter to note any actions and ideas.
- A wiliness to share ideas for school improvement and celebrate successes.
- A smile!
